

Treatment Center Showcase

Father Martin's Ashley is a non-profit, non-sectarian alcoholism and drug addiction treatment center on the Chesapeake Bay in Maryland. For more than 26 years, we've helped chemically addicted people and their families regain their health and dignity. Our 147-acre campus offers a serene, private environment in which to heal. We are Joint Commission accredited and offer Primary and Relapse treatment programs, on-site detoxification, family programs, and a young adult track. Call 800-799-4673, ext. 213 at any time for information, to arrange a tour, or to refer a patient, or visit FatherMartinsAshley.org.

FATHER MARTIN'S
ASHLEY

The Orchid is an alcohol and drug treatment center designed for the specific needs of women suffering from addiction and unresolved trauma. This program heals lives by addressing the unique and specific needs of alcohol-or drug-dependent women. These specific needs are addressed in an environment designed to foster a holistic restoration of a woman's body, mind, and spirit.
